

ARTICLE I TITLE, ENACTING CLAUSE, SCOPE AND PURPOSES

Section 1.1 Enacting Clause

The Town Board of the Town of Caroline, Tompkins County, New York, acting under the authority of the Articles 2 and 3 of the New York State Municipal Home Rule Law and Chapter 62, Article 16 of the Town Law of the State of New York, and in conformance with a comprehensive plan adopted pursuant to Article 16, Section 272-a of the New York State Town Law, hereby adopts and enacts this Law as the Zoning Regulations of the Town of Caroline.

Section 1.2 Title and Scope

This Local Law shall be known as the “Caroline Zoning Law” and is a law regulating the development, design, and use of structures and land in the Town of Caroline.

Section 1.3 Purposes

This Zoning Law is in accordance with and has been developed to ensure that land development occurs in harmony with surrounding uses and is consistent with the Town’s adopted Comprehensive Plan. Its purpose is to protect and promote the public health, safety, and general welfare of the Town. It is a further purpose of this local law to protect the Town’s physical development so that it takes place in an orderly, efficient, safe, and economical manner which maintains and reflects the uniqueness and character of the Town as a rural community and a beautiful and desirable place in which to live. Such an environment is deemed essential to the maintenance and continued development of the economy of the Town and the general welfare of its inhabitants. More specifically, the purposes of this Zoning Law are to:

- A. Maintain and promote the rural character, livability as defined in the Comprehensive Plan, and natural resources of the Town.
- B. Avoid or minimize adverse impacts to neighboring parcels, public facilities and infrastructure, natural environment, and climate when land development occurs.
- C. Preserve and protect the significant scenic resources in the Town.
- D. Promote local businesses and opportunities for new small and home-based businesses that are of such scale, intensity, architectural form, and sited to integrate with the rural residential and agricultural nature of the Town.
- E. Preserve land, forest, air, surface and groundwater, watersheds, and agricultural resources, as well as environmentally sensitive areas to help protect ecological functions, open space and habitats, and encourage outdoor recreation.
- F. Promote the Town as a vibrant and desirable community in which to live.
- G. Promote and preserve....farming and agricultural activities consistent with the rural, historical and natural environment. STOPPED HERE.

- G. Promote residential development that addresses neighborhood preparedness, resilience, and age-friendly community design principles;
- H. Encourage site and building designs that have continuity with the design traditions of the Town of Caroline, are attractive, and have visual and design coordination on adjacent parcels.
- I. Preserve and maintain prime and important agricultural soils in the Town;
- J. Support sustainability, discourage reliance on fossil fuels, and promote the adaptive reuse of buildings.
- K. Promote accessibility for all and enhance pedestrian access, particularly in hamlets.
